How to Support the Music Ministry of Anna Fritz

Anna has just launched a Patreon page at: patreon.com/annafritz. On the site, individuals can provide ongoing financial support and watch new work unfold as she shares the process monthly. Anna Fritz is a Friend with a music ministry under the care of Multnomah Meeting. She depends on the material support of Friends to bring her Spirit-led songs to meetings throughout the US and to communities beyond Friends.

Quakers in Bolivia: Join Nancy Marshall at the "BQEF" lunch table (Bolivia Quaker Education Fund) on Friday and Saturday to learn about Quakers at work in Bolivia.

Korea: Dinner on Friday on the patio outside (we will find the shade). What you want to know about the current situation and it's history. What Korean Friends are doing and how to support them. Chuck Esser (Friends Peace Teams, Philadelphia Committee for Peace and Justice in Asia, Korea Peace Network and AFSC)

Mixed Race: White Parents and grandparents of Mixed race families: Saturday Dinner, meet on the patio we will find the shade. Chuck Esser

American Friends Service Committee strategic discussion. Please gather Saturday over lunch to provide input to AFSC on its directions over the next 5-10 years. Under its new general secretary, AFSC is in listening mode as it focuses its efforts for higher impact. Now is the time to speak: a draft of a new strategic plan will be presented to the Board next spring. For Saturday's discussion, meet Susan and Caroline at a table near the exit to the food area. To have a discussion at your meeting, contact Susan Cozzens, scozzens@live.com. To get on the list for further information directly from AFSC, contact StratPlan2018@afsc.org.

Poor People's Campaign: Interested in the revival of the Poor People's Campaign, a national call for a moral revival for the United States? Join Mico Sorrel and Dinah Bachrach to learn more about the PPC and our hope for the future. Bring your lunch Friday to the back of Upper Marshall (behind the Quaker Fair) off the back of the dining balcony.

Ben Lomond Quaker Center: please join me for on-line worship with the Ben Lomond Quaker Center 7:30-8:00 am Friday, Saturday and Sunday. I'll be in the shade of the big sequoia tree. Merlin Rainwater.

The Other Side by Jacqueline Woodson. This is the book read during our first plenary: illustrations by E.B. Lewis, G.P. Putnam & Sons 2001

Outreach and Visitation: Those interested in "outreach and visitation" among Friends of NPYM will find reports on the wall (near the bathrooms) on the way to the office and the bookstore. Three sets of travelers have visited among us with the Knitting Us Together program. Read of their experiences and see comments written on their travel minutes. Invitations to apply to be a traveler will be coming to your meeting soon. Eat lunch with the O&V committee today Friday near the big fireplace.

Registration: see Clint Weimeister.

Epistle: You can meet with the Epistle Committee to give input or feedback at dinnertimes, Th, Fr, and Saturday. Look for the large Red Epistle sign in the dining hall. Pablo Stanfeld

Regarding Gendered Bathrooms

Everybody is welcome to use the bathroom that best fits their identity. If you prefer to use a single-stall bathroom, they can be found in:

Bulletin Editor: Sara Michener,

To submit by email: saracora@gmail.com. Your email must have "bulletin" on the subject line. Put your name on your announcement. It doesn't have to be part of the announcement but I need to know who to ask if I have questions. There is also a Box for Bulletin Submissions inside or just outside of the NPYM Office. Email is preferred as then I don't have to key them in. Deadline for tomorrow's entries is 8:00 pm. The Yearly Meeting secretary gave another email address as_daily_bulletin_editor@npym.org, that forwards to my email. Both will reach me.
