There is a bulletin available each day for announcements of all kinds. Anyone is welcome to submit items. Concise is good 0:)

Peterson Toscano, our Friend in Residence, is looking for a ride to Seattle on Sunday after Annual Session. Please contact Euclid Bautista or call him at 503-781-8574 and leave a message.

RIDE BOARD There is a ride board in the rotunda for rides needed and rides offered.

NPYM Office hours Nora J. Percival, Secretary North Pacific Yearly Meeting, secretary@npym.org
Sun: 8:30-9:45 am

Daily bulletins, minutes, and documents approved at this annual session are posted on the NPYM web site as they become available. Click on "Annual Session," and then on "Bulletins, Minutes, & Approved Documents."

BEING QUAKER...WHERE YOU ARE (A Journey Among Isolated Friends in the Northwest): Can't find Sakre Edson's book in the bookstore? You can order it through Western Friend. Send a note along with $24 to cover the cost of the book plus shipping and handling to: Western Friend, 305 N. California Ave, Palo Alto CA. 94306 or order online: westernfriend.org/books. It will also be available soon as an E book.

Mindful of footprint I hope we can be as mindful as possible about our footprint and remember to shut off lights when leaving rooms empty, minimizing paper cups (reuse rather than throw "away"?) and paper towel, napkin etc use...and in all other ways you are led.

LESS THAN IDEAL Sometimes, our world seems less than ideal. If you'd like to chat about it, or if you have any interests and/or leadings around peace and social concerns, please get a hold of Sea Gabriel (52, chubby, magenta hair). You can find her wandering, in a vaguely preoccupied manner, around annual session. You could also contact her via email at: sea@sum1.us. Thank you!!

New memoir out in September: Iris Graville (Lopez Island, WA Friends Meeting) has a book coming out in mid-September, and she’s eager to share it with your meeting or worship group. Hiking Naked: A Quaker Woman’s Search for Balance (Homebound Publications) is a blend of Wild and Walden. The memoir centers on the two years Iris and her family lived in the remote, mountain village of Stehekin, WA, where she wrestled with questions about work and calling. It also chronicles how Iris coped with buying groceries by mail, black bears outside her kitchen window, a forest fire that threatened the valley, and a flood that left the family stranded for three days. Iris’s first 2 books, Hands at Work and BOUNTY, are available in the bookstore. To schedule a reading, please contact Iris at iris@irisgraville.com.

Introducing Children to Quaker Meeting: “La reunión Cuáquer y yo / Quaker Meeting and Me” is a simple, friendly booklet describing basic Quaker practices, in Español and English. Copies are available at no cost in the NPYM bookstore and at the Quaker Religious Education Collaborative (QREC) table at the Quaker Fair. Take one for your meeting!

Ben Lomond Quaker Center invites YOUR meeting to send two representatives to a free retreat October 20-22 focusing on deepening the spiritual life of your meeting. There is no program/lodging fee, so for the cost of travel, attenders will receive a weekend in the redwoods in the company of Friends from three Yearly Meetings exploring ways to foster your spiritual community. Details about this and our many other exciting program offerings available in the rotunda (where you registered) next to the Western Friend display.

CENTRAL FRIENDS CAMP, SUPPLIES ANYONE? We need plates, cups and silverware, hotdog/marshmallow sticks. Anyone in the area with supplies contact Sara Michener 541-337-7332.

EPISTLE! – Thanks to the Epistle Committee for all their work.

Pacific NW Quaker Women’s Theology Conference 2018: A reminder and a request. From June 6-10, 2018, join women from across Friends’ traditions to share our present experience of Quaker witness on the 2018 theme, ANSWERING THAT OF GOD IN EVERY ONE: Recognizing, Imaging, Naming, Abiding. Find our table at Quaker Faire, and take bookmarks to share. Registration opens January 2018. You can help us get bookmarks and a poster to each meeting and worship group. If no one from your home meeting has already done so, pick up a prepared envelope from the display table and sign on the clipboard provided.

Also, if you would be willing to promote the conference to your own or other meetings in your region, indicate so on the other signup sheet and we’ll be in touch with you. --PNWQWTC 2018 planning committee. Any questions talk to Barb Bennett (Port Townsend) or Sarah Schmidt (Whidbey Island).

Accessibility request: if you are printing something for plenary please also email a copy to dorenefc@gmail.com

Vegan, Vegetarian and Gluten-Free food options available. For help finding the food you need, please ask a person behind the counter. Chefs are going to make up some very simple plates to accommodate folks with food restrictions. Please utilize our Allergy Friendly station area for menu questions and such.

NPYM Bookstore Hours open
Sunday: before noon, for pick up only
The bookstore has an abundance of excellent used books. Unsold, unwanted books will be donated to the University of Puget Sound. If you would like to have some of these used books, please contact Eric Goldfeder by Saturday evening.

Drivers needed for transportation for two people to Sea-Tac airport on Sunday afternoon. Planes departing at 3:45 pm and about 5:00 pm. Volunteer by contacting Angie Alexander at 253-905-6390.

Faith and Practice Committee: Please take a look at all the Faith and Practice revision documents in the Plenary Room. We have two copies of the full revision sent out to meetings and posted on the NPYM website in January with mark ups showing changes made due to comments received between January and May this year. In addition we have ten copies of the revised version with text that already includes the comments from spring 2017 with a separate set of pages identifying where all those changes appear. In addition we have a copy of the chronology of formation of meetings in NPYM for you to review and make corrections to. PLEASE feel free to join the committee on Friday evening for dinner if you have any questions, comments or concerns ahead of the presentation at Saturday's plenary. Just look for the bright yellow signs in the dining area.

Supplies The office has general office supplies for signs or art projects, plus markers, dry erase markers, etc.

New! Saturday Interest Group #37 AFSC 100 years of Waging Peace. Friends will be looking at AFSC's 100 years of history, the big centennial celebration which happened in April, sharing memories and learning about current programs. We will tour the AFSC banner exhibit and talk about the future of the AFSC Indian Program, which is becoming an independent entity called the Native Program.

Worship Group Assignments are posted on the big board at the back of the plenary room. Interest Group locations are in the rotunda.

Bulletin Editor: Sara Michener. I prefer you to key in your own message. If you handwrite, write large and clearly.
To submit by email: saracora@gmail.com. Your email must have “bulletin” on the subject line. Put your name on your announcement. It doesn’t have to be part of the announcement but I need to know who to ask if I have questions. There is also a box for Bulletin Submissions inside or just outside of the NPYM Office. Deadline for tomorrow’s entries is 8:00 pm.

Thank you, everyone for a great Annual Session!
