Call for a Visitor to North West Yearly Meeting’s Annual Session July 18-23, 2015

Friends have always thrived on intervisitation among different monthly and yearly meetings. If you have a leading for this type of work, please consider applying to be North Pacific Yearly Meeting’s sponsored visitor to Northwest Yearly Meeting’s annual session at George Fox University, Newberg, Oregon, July 18-23, 2015. Letters of application should include your name, your contact information (email and snail mail addresses and phone/cell phone numbers), your age, the name of your monthly meeting, and your responses to the following queries: (a) How does the Spirit move you to visit Programmed Friends? (b) What can you say regarding the differences and similarities among Friends in NPYM and NWYM?

The visitor to Northwest Yearly Meeting is expected to report his/her experiences to North Pacific Yearly Meeting. This year, a written report to NPYM meetings or a post to our website will be requested since our Annual Session precedes NWYM. NPYM’s Annual Session is meeting in Spokane July 15, 2015 through July 19, 2015. You may also be asked to speak at monthly and/or quarterly meetings. All expenses on-site at NWYM’s annual session will be covered, but the visitor is asked to pay his or her own travel expenses to and from the site. Please send applications to Nancy McLauchlan, NPYM Ministry and Oversight Committee member and clerk of the selection committee, by May 31, 2015.
